a large fridge space to accommodate your double door refrigerator. Finished with modern, neutral colours, the kitchen oozes luxury. Open plan design allows easy entertaining and the kitchen space flows into the meals area. Large windows and 2 french doors open to the undercover front verandah. Lovely views over the front yard and relaxing treed outlook.

The cosy lounge room also has a calming outlook and has a slow combustion fireplace and split system air conditioner for year round comfort. Double doors open out onto the back deck area which looks out to the landscaped, terraced yard. Perfect for the summer barbeques. The home has access to approximately 80,000 litres of rain water via two tanks. A carport right at the front door for added convenience when it rains and as the title states, this lovely home is renovated and ready for the next owner to move straight in and start enjoying the mountain lifestyle.

Bowen Mountain has a charming community feel about it and is the perfect place to make your next move.
